

ALLIED HEALTH CAREERS START HERE: A Pathway to Success with ed2go

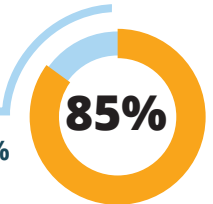

Allied Health is a crucial sector for ed2go and the U.S. labor market.

With Allied Health professionals making up over 60% of the total healthcare workforce, the industry faces a severe talent shortage, with 85% of employers needing help finding skilled workers.

ed2go enables its Partners to provide quality online training, aligned to in-demand jobs, to close the talent gaps efficiently and affordably.

2021-23 ed2go stats

trained nearly 20,000
Allied Health learners

course completion rate

accreditation exams pass rate

13%
higher than the national average

ed2go offers health courses 51

39% of learners
reported gaining a new role, advancement, or team change

80% experienced
at least one personal benefit

“The course has been a really good steppingstone, the best I can remember. I recommend it to everybody, and everybody should definitely be taking advantage of online education.”

Travis Bronson,
graduate of the Certified Clinical Medical Assistant (CCMA)

With ed2go, learners can take their career to new heights by gaining the skills and knowledge to succeed in the growing Allied Health industry.

VIEW OUTCOMES REPORT

WWW.CENGAGEWORK.COM/LEARNER-OUTCOMES-2023

